SATURDAY 2ND JUNE

Join Celtic Star around 1830 hours for an early dinner and an early night. Then early start for a passage to Peel.

SUNDAY 3RD JUNE – PEEL TT DAY & MAD SUNDAY

Arrive Peel for lunch then onshore for petrol fueled fun on Peel Prom! Dinner in the Creek Inn?

MONDAY 4TH JUNE – RACE DAY

Attend Races from Peel by bus or taxi. Weather permitting we'll move the boat to the outer harbour overnight.
Dinner on board

TUESDAY 5TH JUNE

The itinerary for Tuesday is very weather dependent. In settled conditions we'll sail to Ramsay, anchor off and take dinghy ashore for Ramsay Sprints then an evening sail to Douglas. If the weather isn't right for the above we'll sail round to Douglas earlier in the day. Dinner onboard

WEDNESDAY 6TH JUNE

Race day in Douglas, back to Celtic Star for aperitifs and dinner.

THURSDAY 7TH JUNE

Reserve race day and rest day and opportunity to visit island. When we all get back to Celtic Star, after a glass or two of fizz, we'll choose one of the numerous excellent restaurants in Douglas. So dinner ashore.

FRIDAY 8TH JUNE

The climax of the festival Finals Day. After all the excitement is over we'll leave the harbour then anchor off Douglas to enjoy final Celtic Cruising dinner and get prime position for the fabulous fireworks.

SATURDAY 9TH JUNE.

Setting sail at about 0900 after a more leisurely breakfast (Isle of Man kippers most probably), we'll aim to arrive at Conwy about 1800 hours.

The cost of the full 7 days is £980. This includes all harbour fees and fuel. You will be supplied with lovely bedding and towels on board, the great food wines and beer on board are all included. For days on the Isle of Man we will supply breakfast and dinner, apart from meals out in Peel and Douglas. When we are sailing lunch will be supplied as well.
